MINISTER EXTENDS THANKS

Santiago, Cuba, Feb. 15.—The military governor yesterday informed P. Merrill Griffith, American Consul here that the military forces of the Guantanamo District had joined the revolutionary movement. He also said that a similar situation prevailed in Mayari Baraco. The military governor stated that all operations are to be stopped immediately if President Menocal resigns in favor of the vice president.

Less Apprehensive.

Washington, Feb. 15.—The failure to receive from Cuba today reports, showing any marked growth in the liberal rebellion, caused administration leaders to regard the situation there with less apprehension. Minister Gonzales' reports confirm early unofficial dispatches, telling of the dispersal of various rebel bands. They also told, however, of the occupation of San Diego by General Fernandez, commanding the Morem Regiment of regular troops, who had joined him in the revolt.

THE REVIVAL CLOSSES.

The revival which has been in progress here for the past two weeks, closed Sunday night with three additional to the church.

All the sermons of Dr. Robertson were characterized by their depth of feeling and cool, quiet delivery. His coming has been highly beneficial to the city and to the religious institutions especially. These have been drawn together in a more perfect understanding and sympathetic work. The impress of Dr. Robertson will be felt for many years.

Dr. E. B. Barnes left Monday morning for Morehead where he will engage in a revival for two weeks. Dr. Barnes is recognized as a powerful pulpit speaker and his services are in demand.

K. OF P.'S CELEBRATE.

A large number of the members of Normal City Lodge, No. 162, Knights of Pythias, spent a most delightful evening in their Castle Hall in the Odd Fellows building on East Main street Monday night. The occasion was the fifty-third anniversary of the birth of the Order. The Committee composed of Messrs. T. C. Vaughn, Walker Johnson and Joe Witt had made all previous arrangements for the entertainment of the Knights, and the meeting was called to order at 7:30 o'clock. The opening side of the Order was sung by the assembled members, with piano accompaniment by Mr. Ed Wardford, after which there was a great deal of oratory.

Speeches were made by Dr. E. C. McDougle, Mr. Frank Leslie Russell, J. Marion Sandlin, Mr. W. L. Howe, Judge G. E. Lilly, Mr. Collins and Mr. Robert Golden. At the conclusion of the speech-making, the committee served a most tempting lunch, which was greatly enjoyed by all present. After the feast an auction was held and what was left from the feast—some tempting viands—was disposed of and a neat sum realized, which will be used by the committee in helping defray the expense of the entertainment. Everybody present was in fine voice and with the Knights boys.

SOME WATERMELON PATCH.

We notice in a recent issue of the Eustis (Fla.) Lake Region that a man is planting five hundred acres of watermelons in that section. Some watermelon patch, eh? The "Sour Woods" section of Madison county will not have a grand total of five hundred acres of the joy fruit, but for a good, sweet, juicy and luscious watermelon we will put the "Sour Woods" district of old Madison against the world. Through its production of this captivating fruit, this section disseminates more joy than any other portion of the county, besides returning a handsome revenue to the producers.

IN MEMORIAM.

Miss America Myrtle Todd, eldest daughter of S. M. Todd, died at her home near Kingston, Thursday, February 15, at 2:45 o'clock, aged 22 years 4 months and 23 days. She made her confession of faith in Christ and united with the Hayes Fork Baptist church at the age of 13 and has lived a noble christian life. She was a teacher in the Sunday School and organist at this place at the time of her death. When the angel of death visited this earthly vineyard and was about to enter this home and pluck from our hearthstone our precious jewel, she was asked by her mother if she was ready to die. She quickly answered, "Yes, I want to die," and she was later asked who she would be with when she died and said, "She would be with her Maker." She also stated with outstretched arms that she could see her way bright. And with a number of her loved ones near her she said, "How many of you are going to meet me?" She was informed by one near by that they were all going to try to meet her. She said "All that are going to meet me come and tell me." When her father, mother, two sisters and a brother had obeyed her command she said, "All right sit down it will soon be all over with me." Then later she said "I see such pretty little things and that things are so pretty high." Asking them to look and see and telling them to watch she was trying to lead them too, let's all go together take wings and all fly.

So in a very short time she passed over the river to that home eternal not made by hands. It is our sad loss but it is her gain.

A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.

FARMERS MEETING CALLED OFF.

The meeting at Winchester has been called off by the following letter: Gentlemen:—This is to notify you that the State Farmers Institute scheduled for Winchester February 28, March 1 and 2, has been called off. Owing to the influx of people into Estill, Powell and Clark counties prospecting for oil, we have found the hotels at Winchester filled to their capacity and we are unable to secure the promise of rooms to accommodate the speakers, delegates and visitors who attend this meeting.

The people of Clark county and Winchester are anxious to open the doors of their homes to the visitors but this meeting coming at this time of the year when the weather could not be depended upon, it is deemed unwise to attempt it on account of the inconvenience and embarrassment which would likely ensue and being unable to secure the promise of any hotel rooms in advance it was agreed by all that this Institute be called off for the present.

Kindly make mention in your columns of this meeting being called off, and greatly obliged,

Yours very truly,
Mat S. Cohen.
Commissioner of Agri.

MRS. JOHN HISLE, SR., DEAD.

A death that has occasioned universal sorrow in this community was that of Mrs. John Hisle, Sr., which occurred at her home on the Lancaster pike about two miles south of this city, last Thursday morning. Mrs. Hisle had been in declining health for several months, but the cause of her death was due to pneumonia. Owing to her feeble condition, when this dread disease fastened its fangs upon her, she was unable to withstand its blighting effects and the life of a beautiful christian character was brought to a speedy and ultimate end.

Deceased was seventy-six years of age and was one of the most highly respected and best beloved women of Madison county. Possessing a "charity that hopeth all things," she greatly endeared herself to the people, and when the shadowy hand of death drew the veil of night across her vision, she passed quietly and serenely from life into the light of eternal day. Surrounded by friends and loved ones, with a smile as serene as the setting sun, she seemed to welcome joy with the rustling garments of the night, and she sank to rest like a tired child in the lap of motherhood.

In the death of Mrs. Hisle the community has lost a splendid christian woman, the church a devout and faithful member, the aged husband a faithful helpmeet who always stood loyally by his side in sunshine and shadow, the children the best friend they ever knew—a mother whose love and devotion is beyond computation and too great for enumeration.

She is survived by her husband, Mr. John Hisle, Sr., Mrs. Fannie Griggs, of Doyleville; Mrs. J. Tandy Eades, of Lexington; Mrs. Kitty Hughes, and Mrs. D. Bush, of Winchester; Mrs. Ida Gentry, Mrs. Maggie Reeves and Mr. John Hisle, Jr., of Madison county, all of whom have the sympathy of a legion of friends in their bereavement.

The funeral was held Saturday morning at the residence on the Lancaster pike, conducted by Dr. M. T. Chandler, pastor of the Methodist Church, South, of this city, of which denomination she was a devout member, thence the burial in the Richmond cemetery.

MRS. WARREN DEAD.

Mrs. Charlotte Duncan Warren, widow of Judge R. C. Warren, died at her home in Stanford last week, following a protracted illness, due to old age. Mrs. Warren was a sister of Mrs. W. O. Bradley, of Lexington, and is prominently connected over Central Kentucky. The funeral was held from her late home Wednesday and the burial took place in Danville.

MORE ABOUT THE TREE
CUTTING.

The following letter is self explanatory: To the Editor of the Climax-Madisonian:

Dear Editor: I noticed in the last issue of your paper that the shade trees in the Court House yard had been cut down. I was very much surprised and grieved to know this; because I had a tree in putting those trees in the yard, and now am the only living one that was connected with the job, and I will give you its history.

About the year 1870 I was a member of the Fiscal Court of this county which was then composed of six members. I was magistrate then and the Poosy Precinct and was the youngest member on the bench. When in session at Richmond there was a plea brought to us for shade trees to be put in the court house yard for necessity, improvement, and comfort. We readily sanctioned the cause and made an allowance of $5.00 for a tree. At that time Capt. Bob Terrell was Circuit Clerk and George Sheldford was County Clerk. Those men had the trees set out, and I never forgot how Capt. Terrell watered and cared for them. No tree in that town ever took more pains with her pot flowers than Bob with those trees. Now I am the only living representative of that Fiscal Court or the county officers in office at that time. They are gone and the shade trees are gone. However, I would like to know who authorized their slaughter and why had they come so offensive?

Please tell us.

Yours respectfully,
J. M. Hendren,
Speedwell, Kentucky.

All of the trees have not been cut—some eight or nine nearest to the Court House were felled. The others were trimmed severely.

There was no order of the Fiscal Court for the removal of the trees. And none of the county court so far as the records show.

The grand jury, the guardian of the people's rights, is now in session, and is clothed with ample authority to fully investigate this matter for the people. It is passed to them.

Since we were set up, Judge Baxter called at this office and said that the fiscal court had by order made him the custodian of the court house and grounds, and that it was no trouble for anyone to acquaint himself with the information as to who ordered the trees cut out. He seemed to be under the impression that this paper was making an attack on him. In this connection we wish to say that we gave the news to the people without any desire on our part to do otherwise than to give the news; and we further say that it has been our policy ever since we have been in the newspaper business not to assail any one personally in our columns. We will not depart from this rule. Neither will we depart from our rule of giving the people the news, it matters not whom may be concerned therewith. It is not necessary for us to assure Judge Baxter of our hearty good will towards him because these columns have done that long ago.

And now for a legal analysis of the situation. The jailer is by law the custodian of the court house and grounds and the so called order of the Fiscal Court is a mere nullity. Section 3948 of the Kentucky Statutes reads as follows:

"The jailer of each county not having a population of seventy-five thousand or more shall be superintendent of the public square, court house, clerk's office, jail, stray pen and other public buildings at the seat of justice."

The word custodian means "A keeper; a guardian a superintendent." A custodian is certainly not authorized to destroy property even though it may be admitted that the order of the Fiscal Court referred to was a proper one. A wanton destruction is not a preservation of property. Surely in a matter so vitally affecting the comfort of the people as the valuable shade trees in the court house yard, there should have been some consultation with the Fiscal Court before a wholesale slaughter of them was ordered.

Again we say that we have no desire to stir up strife against Judge Baxter nor any one else and prefer to continue our course without animosities.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedying. Deafness is caused by inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound in the ears, which sometimes is entirely closed. Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of the tube, the hearing will be destroyed forever. SPECIAL SESSION OPENS.

MESSAGE OF THE GOVERNOR.

The special session of the Kentucky Legislature called to consider the tax laws met at high noon Wednesday. Governor Stanley sent a message which was read. The following is the message in full.

"Gentlemen of the Senate and House of Representatives: Previous Legislatures have generously provided for many things, good and laudable in themselves, for the improvement and enlargement of penal and eleemosynary institutions for the pensioning of aged and dependent Confederate veterans; for a more liberal compensation for Circuit Judges; for the preservation of forests; for the cure and prevention of contagious disease and for other purposes. It is to be regretted, however, that at the time these appropriations were authorized no adequate provision was made for the necessary increase in revenue necessary to meet them. As a result more than three-fourths of the revenues of the State are absorbed by fixed appropriations which cannot be curtailed by one dollar.

"No human ingenuity, no possible economy, under existing conditions, over which this Administration has no control, bring the necessary expenses of the State Government, however, economically administered, within its current revenues.

"This necessary and inevitable deficit is temporarily provided for by the issuance of warrants having no fixed date of maturity and bearing a high rate of interest. At this date such outstanding warrants amount to $3,733,715.02. The fact that such warrants cannot be funded by legislative enactment under the Constitution of this State, is conclusive evidence of the purpose of the framers of that instrument—that the General Assembly should provide a revenue adequate to meet, without such deficit, all expenses incident to the proper conduct of the State Government at the time they are incurred.

"The present taxing system of the State is not only grossly inadequate for the purposes for which it was designed. In the language of the admirable report of the Tax Commission now before you: 'There is now no adequate method of forcing all property on the assessment roll, no adequate method of determining or fixing the proper taxable value, when the same is listed, and no adequate means for equalizing or equitably distributing the burden of taxation.'

"Need is imperative. The imperative need of immediate and radical tax reform has long been felt, and such legislation as you are now assembled to enact repeatedly demanded by the people of this Commonwealth.

"To amend the Constitution has been amended that your powers might be enlarged and that you be offered every opportunity to give to Kentucky a just, progressive and modern taxing system—a system which will relieve the burdens of taxation embracing every character of property, tangible and intangible. The Constitution as amended permits the use of such methods as will enable you the more readily to reach, for purposes of taxation, property now practically exempt, and I have every reason to believe that when you have placed upon the tax rolls hundreds of millions of such hidden and intangible property the needed revenues for the proper maintenance of the State Government may be secured while at the same time materially lightening the present burden upon agricultural lands, which hitherto have borne a manifestly inequitable share of taxation.

"The task of putting into effect the provisions of our amended Constitution may be difficult. It is, however, no new question, and a short review of the history of our legislature can leave in the minds of no unbiased citizen any doubt of the plain and imperative purpose of an overwhelming majority of the electors of Kentucky that this work be done thoroughly and immediately.

"By virtue of the record amendment to which I have referred—'The General Assembly shall have power to divide property into classes and to determine what classes of property shall be subject to local taxation.'

"A Two-fold Purpose. 'The purpose of this provision is—'First—By imposing a rate collectable without being burdensome, to force from hiding hundreds of millions invested in foreign stocks and bonds, notes, mortgages, and accounts now practically omitted from assessment; and

"Second—In that way to relieve visible holdings—agricultural lands especially—from a disproportionate and grossly inequitable share of the tax burden of the State.

"No change in the organic law has been more exhaustively discussed or more thoroughly considered. On February 9, 1912, the proposed amendment passed the Senate by a vote of 34 to 1. This amendment, with an added referendum, passed the House March 1 by a vote of 78 to 3. Submitted to the voters at the November election, 1913, it was adopted by a majority of 33,500, more than two to one of those voting favoring its adoption.

"The Secretary of State had failed to comply with the provision of the law governing the submission of such amendments, it was again introduced at the session of 1914, passing the Senate, February 27, by a vote of 29 to 1, and the House March 17, by a vote of 72 to 16.

"This amendment being a second time submitted to the voters at the succeeding general election, was adopted by a majority of 32,027.

"Both parties in their last State conventions, have expressed the fixed purpose of the people as unequivocally as the electors at the polls. Both parties by platform declarations favored immediate tax revision and the adoption of this amendment.

"I congratulate the General Assembly that a part, at least, of the vital and difficult work before you has been done by able and diligent public servants.

From Weak and Lame To Well and Strong

Try them. Foley Kidney Pills will do for other men and women—quickly—what they have done for Mrs. Strayhorn. 'Last year, I got almost down with a back,' writes Mrs. H. T. Strayhorn of Cincinnati. 'I had been suffering from inflammation of the bladder, and whenever I stopped doctoring I grew worse. I tried Foley Kidney Pills, and after taking them awhile my bladder sensation disappeared. I was able to get up and about, and since getting well, I've stayed well and had no return of the trouble. I am now in the very first stage, showing the very first signs of improvement. They stop irregular urinary action, ease pain in back and sides, liberate up stiff joints and aching muscles. They put the kidneys and bladder in sound, healthy condition. Try them.

HERE'S A HAPPY "TANLAC FAMILY"

Sisters Join Their Mother In Declaring Tanlac Meant New Start In Life For Them.

MRS. JOHN LOWE.

MRS. S. C. BURNETT.

MISS FRANCES BURNETT.

"Someone suggested the other day that we tack a sign on our house saying, 'This Is a Tanlac Family.' That's because my two daughters and I talk so much about Tanlac. We all wear the Tanlac Smile, too," Mrs. S. C. Burnett, 1408 Walnut street, said.

"But why shouldn't we talk about it when we feel that it has done us a world of good. Everyone of us has been helped by Tanlac and I'll tell you we can't say too much for it.

"First my older daughter, Mrs. John Lowe, tried it. She had lost 30 pounds and was so run down and nervous that even the rumbling of a wagon or the slamming of a door would upset her for hours. We feared we would have to send her to a hospital.

"I honestly believe that Tanlac saved her from complete breakdown. Nothing else seemed to help her. But Tanlac put her on her feet again right quick. Today she is one of the happiest women in Cincinnati.

"Then Frances became run down—sort of half-sick. She had dizzy spells. We were going to take her out of school because she kept complaining of spots and webs before her eyes. Her complexion got pasty and she didn't look a bit well. Tanlac, however, proved to be just the thing she needed and now she is back in good health again.

"Mother Was Half-Sick. 'As for myself, I felt almost the same as Mrs. Lowe. My stomach troubled me. My appetite was poor and I suffered after eating with bloating and itching of gas. But with the help of Tanlac I got rid of these troubles and now I feel simply splendid.

"But I started out at first to tell you about Mrs. Lowe. She simply thought she was going to die. She felt so bad I believe she almost would have been glad to have it all ended. It was just pitiful to watch her. Her weight dropped from 140 to 110 pounds. She couldn't eat without being sick. We had just about given her up. Then we heard of Tanlac and she tried it. All of a sudden she seemed to take new interest in life. Within a week she began eating solid food, just like she did before she had trouble with her stomach. The food nourished her, too, and she began taking on weight. She slept sound and it seemed like no time before she was feeling well again.

"Helps Youngest Girl. 'One day Frances was up to see her sister. She's the youngest, you know. She was feeling bad and Mrs. Lowe gave her some Tanlac. It made her feel better and she came home and said, 'Mama, I believe that new tonic that helped sister will do me some good. Please get me a bottle.' So I did and do you know that in a week she began to feel better. Now she eats all she wants, sleeps well and doesn't have those dizzy spells or spots before her eyes when she is studying.

"I was such a firm believer in Tanlac by the time it had built up the health of my two girls that I got some for myself. It certainly toned up my system. I used to have nervous spells but they are all gone now. I got back my appetite and now I sleep as well as I did before my stomach started to bother me.

"I tell you Tanlac has done a lot for our family and we can't say too much good about it."

wants, who have given no little time and careful attention to the subject in hand.

"On March 15, 1912, the Governor approved an act to investigate revenue and taxation in this state and recommend a plan for the revision thereof. This commission made a voluminous report which contains much of interest to the student of this now vital question, whether you concur in all its findings or not.

"Pursuant to a joint resolution of the last General Assembly, I appointed a Tax Commission consisting of three members of the Senate and four of the House, to serve without compensation, and charged with investigating in this State and recommending a suitable and adequate revenue system.

"After continued and extensive hearings and the most diligent and exhaustive study of this subject, this commission has submitted its final report. That report is before you, and will, I trust, form the basis at least of the construction of a system of revenue and taxation which will foster new enterprises, will invite rather than repel the investment of capital in this, the richest of all fields of investment, and by a wise and just assessment, adequately provide the sorely needed revenues for the proper and successful conduct of the business of the State.

"It is my earnest hope that the work of this commission and of the General Assembly may prove a lasting boon to the people of this state and an impetus to enterprise in every legitimate field of endeavor. In putting into effect your mandate, it was my purpose that no small, no personal, no mere partisan consideration might mar the excellence of a task so large and so pregnant with good or ill to the whole people. It was my earnest desire in the selection of this honorable body that it should be more than bi-partisan; that it should in its efforts and aspirations be non-partisan; that no man and no section should be denied a full and fair hearing. For that reason, this commission is not Democratic or Republican; it is not urban or rural.

Margaret Stahl at the Normal.
Miss Stahl who was heard in the Normal Chapel on Friday evening presenting Walter Brown's great morality play, "Everywoman," scored a real success. Well has she been given a pre-eminent place among women even as Leland Powers has ranked among men. She is an artist of force and gives a story in a most realistic manner, showing at all times a wonderful insight into character, and a literary appreciation.

To have men and women of this type brought before our students is a privilege which cannot be overestimated. To the people of the city it is no less an opportunity for which they should feel indebted to the State Normal.

SUCCUMBS TO PNEUMONIA.

On Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock, February 12, 1917, Mr. Benjamin Franklin Powell, a widely known and life-long citizen of Madison county, died at his home near Union City. He had been a sufferer for years with asthma. The latter part of the previous week he was stricken with pneumonia, and he rapidly grew weaker until death alleviated his suffering, which brought to a close the life of a most exemplary man.

Mr. Powell was born in Madison county, January 28, 1852, and had just passed his sixty-fifth milestone when he was summoned from his earthly labors. He was a splendid type of manhood. Kind, gentle and considerate of the feelings of others, he endeavored himself in the hearts of those with whom he met. He was generous to a fault and a splendid neighbor. The large concourse at the funeral was a beautiful and loving testimonial of the high esteem in which he was held by neighbors and friends. His death has caused those in the community in which he lived to bow their heads in grief.

Deceased is survived by his wife, who before her marriage was Miss Malissa Dunn, a charming young lady Madison county; one daughter, Miss Dola Powell, and one son, Mr. Louis Powell, of Richmond, all of whom have the genuine sympathy of hundreds of persons in the great affliction that has fallen upon them.

The funeral services were held in the Christian church at Union City, Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock, conducted by Dr. M. T. Chandler, pastor of the M. E. Church, South, of this city, thence the burial in the Richmond cemetery where a large number of friends gathered to pay the last tribute of respect to their neighbor and friend—a true and worthy citizen. Peace to his ashes.

MRS. FLETCHER DEAD.

Referring to the death of Mrs. F. W. Fletcher, formerly Miss Sue Patterson, a notice which appeared in these columns last week, the Lexington Leader says:

Mrs. Fletcher's death caused great sorrow in the community as since living in Lexington for a number of years, she has made many devoted friends who admired her for her fine strong and splendid personality, her gracious and beautiful presence, her forcible intellect and loyal nature. She had been an invalid for about a year, but bore her sufferings with the most wonderful courage, and the family and friends hoped against hope that health would triumph.

Before her marriage, Mrs. Fletcher was Miss Patterson, of Cynthia, and belonged to families of prominence and influence. She was a favorite in Lexington society and was most hospitable and charming in the home which is now so bereft.

Her mother, Mrs. Patterson, who resided with her, was unable, on account of ill health, and prostration from the shock of her daughter's death, to make the trip to Cynthia. A short service was conducted here at the home of Mr. Allison Hall, and at the Christian Science church, and at grave in Cynthia. Rev. Mr. Armstrong of the Christian church, gave a prayer. The mound was covered with many lovely designs and mats of flowers sent as a tribute by friends from far and near.

Mrs. Fletcher was a sister of Mrs. D. L. Cobb, of this city, and has often visited here. The many friends of Mrs. Cobb will learn with regret of her sister's death and tender to her their tenderest sympathy.

DEATHS.

Mr. N. A. Durham, of this city, received a telephone message from Berea Wednesday night, stating that his nephew, Master Lloyd Hatfield, the eleven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hatfield, had died in that city about six o'clock that evening. The child was taken ill on Monday with appendicitis and gradually grew worse. In a vain attempt to save his life an operation was performed and four hours later the spirit took its flight and he lay cold in death's icy embrace. He never regained consciousness after the operation. He was a bright little fellow and will be greatly missed by his little companions and friends. The death was made more deplorable by the critical illness of his mother, Mrs. Catherine Durham, Hatfield, who was suffering with a severe case of pneumonia. Mrs. Hatfield is a sister of Mr. Durham, who is employed at Joe Oldham's hardware store, this city. To the bereaved relatives the deepest sympathy is extended them in their hour of saddest affliction.

Mrs. Talitha Ballwe Deatherage, one of our aged and highly respected women, died at her home on the Lexington pike Tuesday night at 10:30 o'clock from a complication of diseases. Deceased was the widow of Mr. B. F. Deatherage, a prominent citizen of Madison county, who died several years ago. She had passed her seventy-eighth milestone and was a truly devoted Christian woman who will be greatly missed by a wide circle of relatives and friends. She is survived by one son, Mr. James B. Deatherage, who has the sympathy of the entire populace in his bereavement. As we go to press the funeral arrangements had not been made.

GRANDPA WALTON.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Carter are receiving congratulations from their host of friends upon the arrival of a handsome little son which was born Wednesday afternoon. The youngest's attractive mother before her marriage was Miss Lucy Lee Walton, and her son has been named Edwin Depaw Walton, in honor of her father Mr. E. C. Walton, and Mr. Carter's father, Mr. B. D. Carter.—Stanford Interior Journal.

Mrs. Carter lived in Richmond several months when her father, Col. E. C. Walton, was editor of the Climax. She was a beautiful and charming young lady and made many friends during her stay in our city. With these many friends we join in extending hearty congratulations to the happy parents and to Col. Walton, and trust that the new arrival may grow up and make as good and useful a man as his Grandpa Walton.

RICHMOND COLORED BOY HONORED.

Frederick Ballou, son of Pattie and George Ballou, a graduate of the Knoxville College, Knoxville, Tenn., sailed for East Africa on February 13th. He goes under the auspices of the International Y. M. C. A. as assistant secretary. He will also teach the native soldiers in the Province of British East Africa. To avoid the war zone his ship will sail as far South as Cape Horn, before turning East.

This is quite a distinction and the colored people rejoice that he has been so honored.

A SYNOPSIS Of The Proposed NEW KENTUCKY REVENUE AND TAXATION LAW

Constitutional. The new law is in conformity with the Amendment to Section 171 of the Constitution authorizing the General Assembly to—
Classify property for taxation.
Fix the rate of taxation on each class.
Designate which classes shall be subject to local taxation.

Permanent. The new law provides for State Tax a permanent tax on all property for State purposes and carries into effect the provisions and exercises supervision over the entire question of State Taxation. To devote its entire time to the question and assume the duties of the various Boards and Commissions now having authority to assess and tax property for State purposes at Frankfort.

Rate of. The new law fixes the rate of taxation on all taxable property for State purposes at forty cents on each $100 of assessed value, instead of fifty-five cents, as at present, on all classes of property except deposits in bank, which are to be taxed at ten cents on $100 for the purpose of encouraging thrift and savings and the circulation of money now sequestered because of excessive taxation. In other respects taxation for State purposes will be absolutely uniform on all classes of property, whether owned by the residents of towns or of the country.

Apportionment. The apportionment for each item of expense remains undisturbed, and the General Revenue, Expense Fund, the School Fund, the Sinking Fund, the Kentucky University and Road Tax will receive the same exact proportion of the revenue as heretofore.

Real Estate. Real estate will be taxed to its locality in the country or towns and cities for State purposes at the uniform forty-cent rate, and for county, town or taxing districts at the local rates fixed by the local authorities. The value of real estate depends on its location and surrounding improvements and should naturally contribute towards the maintenance of such improvements.
